

PRAYER AT THE SENDING OUT OF THE EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS TO THE SICK AND HOUSEBOUND

Priest: Almighty and loving Father, as we have received your Son in this Holy Eucharist, we ask you to hear our prayer for our brothers and sisters:

All: Give your healing, Lord, to those who are sick and housebound.
May those who take the Body of Christ to them also be a loving sign of our prayers and thoughts.
Keep us united with them in all their sufferings so that we will grow together as one community with the presence of Christ among us. Amen

Dear Sister and Brothers, saying "Thank You" does not in any way seem enough.
Thank you to all who prepared my Silver Jubilee Celebrations, it was an evening to remember enriched with many blessings. My family and guests enjoyed it immensely. Thank you to each one of you for your presence on the night; for gifts; cards; Mass Cards and kind wishes.
As I've said already, it has been an immense privilege to be part of your lives for almost three years and our celebration was certainly a reminder. The evening had a wonderful family atmosphere and many people commented on that and also commented that St Brigid's is a wonderful community. My sincere thanks to Simon & Louise for the wonderful music; to those who prepared the Church, which was stunning; to Frank aka Pat Cahill & the team in the parish centre.
My special thanks to our young readers and to Lucy for serving.
If I have forgotten anyone, then I apologise, as it is not my intention.
"May God forgive you for what you have done on my behalf." Pope John Paul I when asked if he accepted his election as Pontiff ~~~26th August 1978
I'll paraphrase his word, again "May God reward each one of you for what you have done on my behalf." Fr Stephen 9th June 2023

Every blessing, love & prayers

The Scottish Bishops have advised that we return to pre-covid Liturgical practice.

Therefore, we have to return to offering the sign of peace at the celebration of the Eucharist rather than a nod of the head or a wave of the hand.

Health and Safety

In the interests of health and safety, please keep all aisles; passageways and doorways clear at all times. No bags; buggies; etc should clog up these. This is vital.

Please also ensure that mobile phones are either switched off or on silent at all time in the Church building. In recent weeks parishioners or visitors have not been turning off their mobile phones or putting them on silent. Please respect the sanctity of the building and respect the right of others to silence prayer free from interruption or distraction.

The Church building is also not the place to make phone calls or to text.

Thank you.

Please hand in any Mass Intentions into the Presbytery NO Later than a Wednesday 6pm. Please put through letterbox.

May
Brigid
bless the house
wherein you dwell.
